The Sultans of Bengal were patrons of Bengali literature and began a process in which Bengali culture and identity would flourish. Sadly, the edifice of faith and trust the two leaders built came to nought when the people deserted them, opting for the rhetoric of politicians who demeaned and denounced them for not working in the best interests of their own ethnic groups. Nous allons jouer ma femme... Nous allons lui donner le change, quoi.

I learned a lot about how to truly listen, and how satisfying it is when others listen.

I absolutely loved your books. How many would you like to buy.
