Il Cobra Trad. Certainly, this image of the Hydra cannot help but remind us of Freud's Medusa's head, the mythological symbol which Freud associates to the fear of castration and to a general misogyny: not only does truncation obviously recall castration, but as Freud points out, the "multiplication of penis symbols" such as found in the Medusa's serpentine hairs or, for that matter, in the Hydra's many heads, also signifies castration "for they replace the penis the absence of which is the cause of the horror. Stir well and season with salt and pepper.
